him to explain how he had won the $2.00. Weiss produced a tin box, which he said contained $4.00, of which he declared, $2.00 belonged to his friend.

Airs, Travous by this time was more confident that her servant had been swindled and demanded that he open the box. Welss compiled, and, instead of the $4.00 be expected to find discovered that the box contained three bricks.

Meantime Chief Stubbs arrested Weiss's "friend," who gave his name as James Madison and claimed to be a salesman for a Chneimatt whisky house.

Chief Stubbs surjed with Madison to the city jail, and on the way they met his companion. The Chief attempted to take both men to tail, but Madison drew a revolver. To disarm the prisoner, Chief Stubbs was compelled to release his hold on the man last arrested, who ran away, and is believed to have boarded an electric car for East St. Louis.

Madison was taken before Justice Glass for a preliminary hearing at once and was bound over to the Grand Jury bond was bound over to the Grand Jury bond was bound over to the Grand Jury bond The fast trains leaving St. Louis on that road are using the Vailey road and crossing the river at Gray's Point. Two trains left here on the main line yesterday and picked their way as far as Piedmont. It will be several days before repairs will be made and the Iron Mountain will resume running under normal conditions.

The Himels Central from the south arrived thirty minutes late.

The Palitimore and Ohio is still hampered by washouts and soft track, and the train from Cincinnati and New York was three hours overdue.

Madison was taken before Justice Glass for a preliminary hearing at once and was bound over to the Grand Jury, bond being fixed at $500.

Weiss, at the preliminary hearing, told how he had been swindled out of $50. He said that Madison had told him that he wished him to deliver a book, which he had downtown, to his son, who lived in St. Louis.

Weiss accompanied him to get the book. They went to a house near the business section of Edwardsville. Here they found the other man, who made his escape. The strangers produced a deck of cards and a cloth with numbers on it. They induced Weiss to put up $50 on the game and made him believe that Madison and he had each won $1,000. TO DRAIN 2,000 ACRES OF LAND.

Old Canal From Big Lake Will Be Reopened to Save Farms.

The old canal which was dug to drain clust is known as Hig Lake near the bluffs n Centerville Station is to be reopened as oon as the Centerville Station Drainage Commissioners can secure a dredge for this purpose

It is expected that as soon as the canal is opened about 2000 acres of land now under water and unfit for farming will be drained. The Drainage Commission is mposed of Charles B. Goedde of East St. Louis, Celestine Tettlenne and Joseph lookson of Centerville Station.

The recent heavy rains have swollen Big Lake until now about 2,000 acres of disable farm lands, including a part of ie suburban sections of East St. Louis, The water

In most instances he water is only from a few luches to a ouple of feet deep, but hundreds of acres f winter wheat has been killed as a realt, and after the drainage is effected it till be necessary for the farmers to relant the ground with corn or some other ref.

In East St. Louis there are several sections which have been inundated as a result of the heavy rains. The water stands in these low places and the residents are compelled to use gum boots or boats in getting to and from their homes.

Mayor Silas Cook and City Engineer Helm have conferred with Mr. Goedde, and it is believed that by the opening of the old canal or the digging of a new one by way of Cabokia, all of the excess water will be carried off.

Mr. Goedde and his associates visited Cabokia and several points on the river yesterday to select the best place to start the dredger, when it is secured. Mr. Goedde also conferred with W. C. Hurst, assistant superintendent of the Iron Mountain Railroad, relative to the opening of a floot gate in the embankment. The drainage commissioners will hold another conference this morning. we cannot rebuild and strengthen so as to accomplish the greatest desire and experience the keenest satisfaction, and after we have cured a case of this kind there will never again be a sign of weakness.exceptbrought Meyers' Staff of Physicians. on by imprudence.

OUR GUARANTEE IS DOLLAR NEED BE PAID UNTIL CURED.

OUR SPECIAL OFFER. In view of there being so many aflicted with private chronic and pelvic diseases, who are (reating with quack specialists and inexperienced physicians without receiving any benefit, we have decided to make a special offer to charge only one-half of our regular fee for curing those who are now undergoing treatment elsewhere and are dissatisfied, provided they come to us before April 1, 1004. For instance, if you are afflicted with either Piles, Rupture, Vartescele, Hydroccle, Stricture or Nervous Beeline, our charge for curing either of which, without any compileations, is $25.00, we will cure
you tor $12.00, and accept the money
in any way you may wish to pay.
We will also cure Contagions Blood Poison for $25.00, which is just hait
our regular fee. This liberal offer is made to enable those to be cured who have spent their money in docturing without relief, and to show the many who have treated with descus of physicians without benefit that we have the only methods that produce a lifelong cure.
